Bank of Cyprus Group Announcement

Nicosia, 23 August 2012

With regards to press articles which discuss the report of the Internal Auditor of Bank of Cyprus Group (the 'Group') about specific loans of the Group's subsidiary Uniastrum Bank, the Group, following a request of the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission, announces the following:

The Internal Auditor's report has been requested by the Group's management as part of the regular audits which are conducted in all of the Group's units.

The contents of the report have not yet been examined by the management or the Board of Directors of the Group and the different parties involved have not yet had a chance to express their views and positions.

The Group's management expresses its regret for the leakage of the internal confidential document and is investigating the circumstances under which this was made.
