

Athens, 06.03.2024

Appointment of new Chief Credit Officer

Attica Bank announces that Mr. Alexandros Malandris joins the Bank's personnel and assumes the position of Chief Credit Officer with effect from 01.03.2024.

Mrs. Anna Marmara remains with the Bank as a Management Consultant.

Brief CV of the new Executive of Attica Bank

Alexandros Malandris, Chief Credit Officer

Mr. Alexandros Malandris joins the Bank's Management personnel and undertakes the position of Chief Credit Officer. He has a long-standing experience, having held positions of responsibility in systemic and international banks.

Since 2019 he has held the position of Assessments & Special Projects PMO and Senior Manager Supervisory Inspections Coordination, in the Supervisory and Regulatory Affairs sector of Piraeus Bank. Since 2019 he held a position of responsibility in the General Division of Credit of the same Bank specializing in Large Enterprises, Structured-Project Finance and Shipping. He has also worked in Corporate Coverage Banking Europe (CCBE) at BNP PARIBAS in London, as well as at Bank of Cyprus in the Corporate Division. Mr. Malandris has extensive knowledge in the field of credit in a wide range of companies and sectors both in times of growth and recession of the economy both in Greece and abroad.

Mr. Malandris holds a degree in Accounting and Finance from the American College of Greece and a certification from the Chartered Banker Institute.

ATTICA BANK S.A.